CASE NO. 4:11-cr-00474

ORDER

[Resolving Docs. 165, 166,
167, 170, 172, 174, 176,
177, 180]

JAMES S. GWIN, UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT JUDGE:

Defendant George DeLong asks this Court to make a non-binding recommendation to the Bureau of Prisons that DeLong be placed in a halfway house for the remainder of his sentence.<sup>1</sup> However, Defendant DeLong's placement is within the Bureau of Prisons' discretion and expertise, so a non-binding recommendation from this Court is likely to have little practical effect.<sup>2</sup> Further, given DeLong's long incarceration period, the Bureau of Prisons is more familiar than this Court with DeLong's recent conduct and with DeLong's need for halfway house placement.<sup>3</sup> Therefore, the Court DENIES DeLong's motion for a halfway house recommendation.

This Order resolves all pending motions in this case. If DeLong's counsel supplements DeLong's pro se compassionate release requests, counsel must file a new motion. If DeLong's counsel files a non-supplementation notice, counsel must identify the prior pro se pleadings that raise DeLong's requested relief.
